

Site Specific Inspections

Regular site safety inspections can help to prevent incidents, injury and illness by identifying and recording hazards, assessing risk and considering corrective action before an incident occurs.

Deliverables

SASM's professional safety advisors can provide regular inspections of a workplace complete with written recommendations. Inspections may consist of (or a combination of):

- General area(s)
- Equipment
- Materials
- Processes, etc.